

Season: Spring

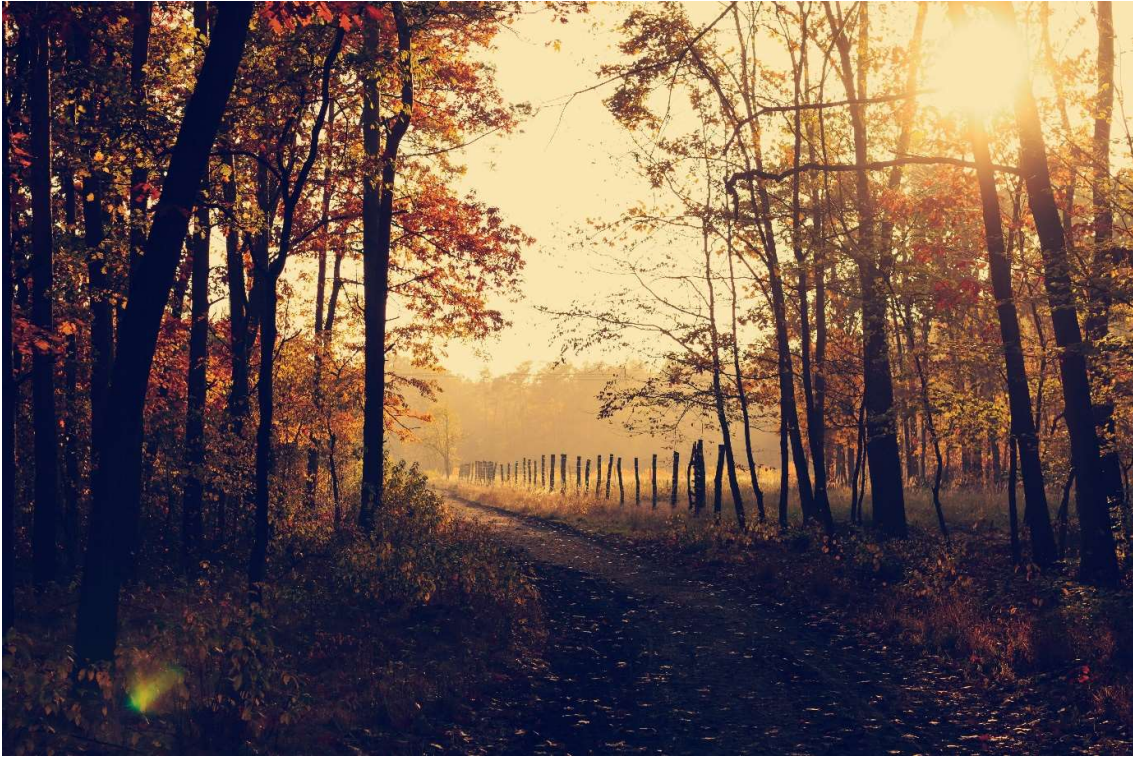

Dates	March to June (Northern Hemisphere) September to December (Southern Hemisphere)
Fruits	Strawberries, Cherries and Apricots
Plants/Flowers	Tulips, Daffodils and Cherry Blossoms Bloom
Animals	Birds Lay Eggs, Lambs are Born, and Insects like Bees and Butterflies are active
Weather	Mild Temperatures with Occasional rain
Spring In Different Countries	In Japan, Spring means Cherry Blossoms; in India, it is festival time.
Did You Know?	Baby Birds Learn to Chirp During Spring!

Season: Summer

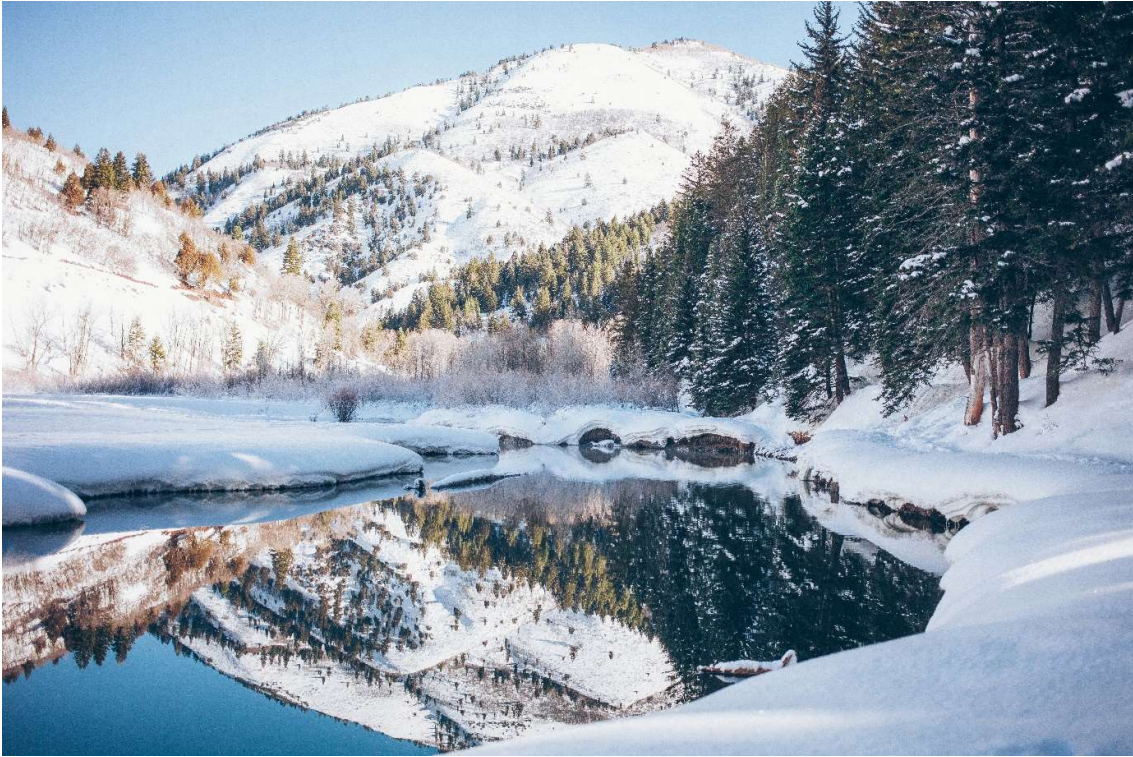

Dates	June 21/22 to September 22/23 (Northern Hemisphere) December 21/22 to March 20/21 (Southern Hemisphere)
Fruits	Watermelon, Mangoes, Peaches and Berries.
Plants/Flowers	Sunflowers, Lavender, and Marigolds.
Animals	Many animals are active and raise their young ones. Butterflies and Fireflies are often seen.
Weather	Hot temperatures with longer days and shorter nights.
Summer In Different Countries	Summer means barbecues in Australia, Mangoes in India and Pakistan, and Fireworks in the USA with festivals in Brazil and South Africa.
Did You Know?	Worlds longest day occurs during the summer solstice in June.

Season: Autumn (Fall)

Dates	September 23/24 to December 21/22 (Northern Hemisphere) March 20/21 to June 20/21 (Southern Hemisphere)
Fruits	Apples, Pumpkins, Figs, and Pears.
Plants/Flowers	Chrysanthemums and Marigolds. Leaves of Trees like Maple and Oak Change Colour.
Animals	Squirrels gather nuts while birds move to warmer places.
Weather	Cool and Crisp air with shorter days.
Summer In Different Countries	Autumn brings colourful leaves to the USA, Harvest Festivals in Pakistan, Grape harvesting in Italy, Oktoberfest in Germany and Thanksgiving in Canada.
Did You Know?	Red and orange leaf colours are already present in leaves we see them when chlorophyll fades in autumn.

Season: Winter

Dates	December 21/22 to March 19/20 (Northern Hemisphere) June 20/21 to September 22/23 (Southern Hemisphere)
Fruits	Oranges, Pomegranates and Cranberries.
Plants/Flowers	Evergreens like pine and fir trees. Holly and Poinsettias are popular during winter holidays.
Animals	Bears Hibernate and Arctic animals like seals and penguins are active.
Weather	Cold Temperatures and snow in many places with shorter temperatures.
Summer In Different Countries	Winter brings snow in Canada, and the Northern Lights in Norway, with Christmas in the USA and safaris in South Africa.
Did You Know?	In Antarctica, it's dark for 24 hours a day in winter.

